SUMMARY

I'm a growth-driven marketing and business development strategist who challenges the status quo to help brands dominate their markets. With over 20 years of experience, I disrupt complacency by crafting bold, innovative digital marketing and brand strategies that break through the noise and create unforgettable customer experiences. Skilled in SEO, content marketing, web development, and MarTech tools, I empower businesses to refine their value propositions, optimize operations, and lead industry transformation. My approach isn't about following best practices—it's about rewriting the playbook to build brand equity, capture new markets, and future-proof businesses in today's fast-paced, hyper-competitive landscape.

EXPERIENCE

Fulltime Caregiver / Personal Representative of Estate May 2023 - present

Took an unplanned leave from consulting work to provide full time care for my father as he attempted to recover from a serious medical condition. Sadly, he passed away in July 2024, and since then I have been finalizing his estate.

Head of Business Development & Marketing

Herbal Bliss Beverages | Summerville, SC | April 2015 - November 2016

Premium beverage startup needing rapid distribution and brand awareness.

- Originally hired to drive customer acquisition and revenue growth; promoted to lead company-wide marketing and strategic brand development based on performance.
- Generated 1600% YOY sales growth, securing retail placement in 100+ stores, including Whole Foods & Bi-Lo.
- Developed and executed a comprehensive marketing strategy to reposition Herbal Bliss as a premium natural beverage brand, addressing prior gaps in brand awareness, compliance, and visual identity.
- Overhauled marketing and sales collateral, redesigned the company website (including SEO-rich product pages), and launched e-commerce functionality — resulting in 442% increase in site traffic & 40% reduction in bounce rate.
- Established new distribution channels through partnerships with food brokers and led product placement negotiations with Ingles (~200 stores) and Harris Teeter (~250 stores).
- Navigated multiple growth constraints including lack of marketing investment, poor product labeling, regulatory compliance issues, and expiring inventory — solving for overstock by securing a last-minute bulk purchase agreement with UGO to recover costs.
